THE INSTITUTION OF ENGINEERS (INDIA)
KOLHAPUR LOCAL CENTRE

★ SEPTEMBER 2010 ★ KOLHAPUR ★ VOL - 8 ★

From Chairman's Desk ...

It is a great pleasure for me to put forth this News Bulletin of Kolhapur Local Centre on the occasion of "43 Engineers Day 2010" to express our gratitude to the towering personality in the history of India, the Great Engineer, "Bharat Ratna Sir Mokshagundam Visvesvaraya" on his birthday anniversary.

On this Occasion let me introduce IEI Kolhapur Local Centre, The Institution of Engineers (India), IEI, is a multidisciplinary professional body that encompasses 15 engineering disciplines and gives engineers a global platform from which to share professional interests.

It was established in 1920, with its head quarter in Kolkata. IEI has served the engineering fraternity for over eight decades, in this period of time it has been inextricably linked with the history of modern-day engineering.

In 1935, IEI was incorporated by Royal Charter and remain the only Professional body in India to be accorded this honor. Today, its quest for professional excellence has given it a place of pride in almost every prestigious and relevant organization across the globe.

IEI functions among professional engineers, academicians and reach workers. It provide a vast array of technical professional and supporting services to the Govt, Industries Academia and the engineering fraternity, operating from over all centres located across the country.

IEI offers a non-formal engineering course, the successful completion of which is officially recognised as equivalent to a degree in engineering or a post graduate diploma leading to a master's degree. Every year, as many as 60,000 candidates appear for these exams that are held bi-annually at exam centers.

To promote and advance the science practice and business of engineering in all its various disciplines IEI provides all that we need to further your professional career as an engineer. Some of them are Continuous professional development through regular professional programmes Opportunities to update professional knowledge through courses conducted by IEI's Engineering Staff College of India at Hyderabad.

A change to participate in inters disciplinary activities in the field of rural development, sustainable development, water management, quality, Safety and R & D. Right and privileges of the Charter engineer participation opportunities in national and international seminars, meets, conferences and other activities.

With the sincere efforts of our team-past Chairman's, Hon. Secretaries, KLC Committee Members, the Technical Activities Seminars, Workshops, Establishment of Student's Chapters etc. were carried out for the benefit of Society during 2009 - 2010 which as per mentioned on the next page.

During the period under report, we have tried to convene, organise interdisciplinary seminars, workshop, student chapters etc. I have been successful in effecting a personal rapport in building up ties amongst the members. Membership strength is also increasing.

We have conducted Educative programmes and also organised workshops for various educational and job opportunities in Engineering Education after 10th & 12th as well as after passing of Diploma examination or B. E. examination.

We have started to flash the sparking achievements, honours and contribution made by engineers in various engineering fields for the benefit of other member engineers, as well as, to various personalities in the society belonging to diverse professional fields.

My endeavour has been to build a bridge between engineering practices in the field with Govt. & Semi Govt. bodies to execute project works with our local centres meaningful cooperation in such a process. Attempts have also been made to perform our activities by involving student community, young engineers, and administrators in achieving the objective of our institution.

We are pursuing vigorously a proposal to have own land for our local centre's office and hope to succeed in coming year with your active support.

My best wishes to all the Engineers, dignitaries present for "43rd Engineers Day - 2010" being celebrated today.

I express my deep gratitude, & my heart full "Thanks" for your cooperation and response in fulfilling the commitments. I am also thankful to my team members, & past Chairman's and Hon. Secretary. Without active support of whom I would not have been successful in discharging my duties as a Chairman of Kolhapur local centre.

Thanking you.

Er. D. R. Jadhav
Chairman, IEI, KLC.

Scientists and engineers have to play a vital role in the process of development and progress of a nation. They are the pillars of development in this changing world. Science has minimized the world. With the help of science man has conquered land, water, air and space. Computers are used in space rocket technology and star war projects but today they are being used in many fields like trade, commerce industry, education and entertainment. In the field of industrialization India is doing a tremendous progress. Countries, natural resources are mainly helpful for the progress of industry. We are currently at irreversible stages of a remarkable and far reaching revolution in science and engineering. The role of engineers in this scenario has become multifaceted which is based on a science based knowledge intensive high technology areas. Essential part of the new development is to solve the environmental problems and to preserve and conserve the global ecosystem.

Challenges are inevitable. We need to reconsider our approach to meet the new challenges. The council of the institution of Engineers (India), Kolkata had selected the theme "Impending Paradigm Shift In Engineering Science And Future Challenges"

Let us open the dialogue and let Institution of Engineers (India), Kolhapur local centre address the issue in its right perspective.
